NSDesign Named Most Outstanding Performing Business in Renfrewshire

TALENTED design company NSDesign has scooped a top gong at this year's Renfrewshire Chamber of Commerce awards.

The Hillington based company, was named as winner of the Outstanding Performing Business in Renfrewshire (with under 25 people) at the ROCCO awards.

The e-commerce and design solutions firm beat MEPC Hillington Park and Sporty Kids to the prestigious honour and the accolade has been the icing on the cake for NSDesign which has enjoyed one of its busiest years to date.

Managing Director Gary Ennis said:

"We are absolutely over the moon to have won this award – it really means the world to the entire team. We were delighted to have even been nominated and short-listed against such other good companies but to pick up the award is really important to us."

"We are also in the running for another award next week as we have been named as a finalist in the Scottish Software Awards so we are hoping that we can continue our winning streak."

A spokesman from the awards judging panel said:

"The judges were very impressed by NSDesign's enthusiasm and approach of being a 'people company that delivers technology'. The company growth is impressive as are the levels of customer satisfaction. Well done!"

NSDesign provides internet solutions with a wide range of web design, domain registration and hosting products for its customers who include Greenock Morton FC, The Lighthouse (Scotland's Centre for Architecture and Design) and Highland Spring.

Gary said:

"We may be a small company with less than ten members of staff but we provide internet services to thousands of clients. These include government bodies, universities, public and private sector institutions, small to medium sized businesses and personal clients.

"We are a growing company and our customer care is unrivalled which is why over half of all our new business comes direct from customer referrals. Winning this award has just cemented our reputation further."
